

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

Information dissemination from diverse and antagonistic sources-cannot be preserved if the cable ownership cap is weakened. And just like in the old Soviet Union it's propoganda, not news.
